MACM

“Committed to Enrichment of its Members”

The Minnesota Association for Court Management (MACM) was originally organized in 1907 as the Association of Clerks of the District Court of Minnesota. From those early days of elected Clerks and offices that met primarily to run their offices on the fees received, MACM has evolved into an organization comprised of court personnel interested in the improvement of Court Administration and the overall judicial system.

MACM has over 400 members consisting of court administrators, managers, supervisors and other court professionals from across the state, federal and administrative courts located in Minnesota.

MACM operates exclusively for the purpose of promoting and improving the common professional interests of its members by providing assistance and support for the accumulation and dissemination of information, and for education relating to the advancement of court management.

Membership Benefits

Education and Training

MACM is committed to providing continued education and training through seminars, conferences and publications.

Legislative and Rule Making Participation

MACM promotes active participation in the legislative and rule making process.

Forum for Knowledge

MACM acts as a forum for problem solving and for sharing knowledge, information and experience among members of the Association.

Networking Opportunities

MACM promotes networking with professionals who share your interest in improving the justice system.

Scholarships

MACM promotes the improvement of the judicial system by financially supporting member's education in court administration and related fields.

Mentoring

MACM is dedicated to promoting and building new skills for its members through “Masterful Mentoring,” a reciprocal mentoring program.

Building Collaborative Relationships

MACM encourages its members to build collaborative relationships by working with the Judicial Council, Supreme Court, Court of Appeals, State Court Administrator, judicial districts, counties and other courts to provide effective court management in Minnesota.

Getting Involved in MACM Committees

The Education Committee is responsible for the planning and implementing of educational and employee development programs.

The Legislative and Outreach Committee is active in the legislative and rule-making processes by monitoring and proposing new legislation that could impact courts. Then also encourage community outreach and coordinate volunteer opportunities.

The Membership Services Committee welcomes and provides support to members through newsletters, the website, and networking opportunities. This committee is responsible for recruiting and acknowledging meritorious individuals and programs through its award programs.

MACM is an organization committed to the enrichment of court leaders through professional growth and development opportunities, promoting advancements and innovation in court administration, and partnering with other professionals working to improve the justice system in Minnesota.
