

Tuesday, October 5, 2021

8:15 am to 9:00 am	Registration Open and Continental Breakfast - DECC
9:00 am to 9:20 am	Welcome, Presentation of Colors, and Pledge of Allegiance DECC Harbor Side Ballroom Jenny Miller, MACM President, Fourth Judicial District Court
9:20 am to 10:00 am	State Court Administrator's Address DECC Harbor Side Ballroom Jeff Shorba, State Court Administrator
10:00 am to 10:30 am	Morning Break
10:30 am to 12:00 pm	Judge DeSanto – Will to Murder DECC Harbor Side Ballroom Glensheen Murders – 43 years of mystery and intrigue
12:00 pm to 1:15 pm	Lunch Buffet DECC Harbor Side Ballroom The Food Group Charitable Organization Presentation
Breakout Sessions 1:15 pm to 2:30 pm	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + Employee Wellness and Resiliency Patrol Commander Tim Harris (Washington County Sheriff's Office) (DECC Room 204) Session Description: In this session you will go over the impact on stress as it relates to employees working in the criminal justice field. We will review the types of stressors and their impact on our quality of life. Additionally, it will cover resiliency strategies and ways to improve our wellbeing and our quality of life. + SCAO-Remote Work (on-boarding, work performance and competencies) (DECC Room 205) Session Description: TBD + Protecting Against Fraud in a Pandemic World – a new way to think about fraud (David Offord, Vicky Siebert from Wells Fargo, Jamie Majerus and Lesa Kramer) (DECC Room 301-302) Session Description: The fraud today is more about interconnectivity as your agencies are increasingly using technology and the internet, opening up new opportunity for fraudsters.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✚ Neutrality & DEI: What's the Deal? – Alex Abraha, Brittney Dennis (DECC Room 203) Session Description: This presentation is designed to engage participants in an important dialogue around 1. neutrality and 2. Diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI). Building on DEI terminology, we invite participants to actively engage in conversations in order to establish a foundational understanding of DEI at the MJB. ✚ All about Rule 20's with Dr. Katheryn Cranbrook (DECC Room 202) Session Description: An overview of Rule 20.01 (Competence to Proceed) and 20.02 (Mental State at the Time of the Alleged Offense) evaluations, common reasons for Rule 20 referrals and national trends. Case studies will be used to illustrate concepts discussed.
--	---

2:30 pm to 3:00 pm	Afternoon Break
---------------------------	------------------------

Breakout Sessions 3:00 pm to 4:15 pm	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✚ Employee Wellness and Resiliency Patrol Commander Tim Harris (Washington County Sheriff's Office) (DECC Room 204) Session Description: In this session you will go over the impact on stress as it relates to employees working in the criminal justice field. We will review the types of stressors and their impact on our quality of life. Additionally, it will cover resiliency strategies and ways to improve our wellbeing and our quality of life. ✚ SCAO-Remote Work (on-boarding, work performance and competencies) (DECC Room 205) Session Description: TBD ✚ Protecting Against Fraud in a Pandemic World – a new way to think about fraud (David Offord, Vicky Siebert from Wells Fargo, Jamie Majerus and Lesa Kramer) (DECC Room 301-302) Session Description: The fraud today is more about interconnectivity as your agencies are increasingly using technology and the internet, opening up new opportunity for fraudsters. ✚ Neutrality & DEI: What's the Deal? – Alex Abraha, Brittney Dennis (DECC Room 203) Session Description: This presentation is designed to engage participants in an important dialogue around 1/ neutrality and 2. Diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI). Building on DEI terminology, we invite participants to actively engage in conversations in order to establish a foundational understanding of DEI at the MJB. ✚ All about Rule 20's Dr. Cranbrook (DECC Room 202) Session Description: Session Description: An overview of Rule 20.01 (Competence to Proceed) and 20.02 (Mental State at the Time of the Alleged Offense) evaluations, common reasons for Rule 20 referrals and national trends. Case studies will be used to illustrate concepts discussed
---	---

4:30 pm to 6:30 pm	Vendor Show – Holiday Inn Great Lakes Ballroom
---------------------------	---

Wednesday, October 6, 2021
-----------------------------------	--

7:30 am to 8:15 am	Registration Open and Continental Breakfast (DECC)
---------------------------	---

8:15 am to 8:30 am	Announcements (DECC Harbor Side Ballroom)
---------------------------	--

8:30 am to 10:00 am	Chris Heeter – Wild Leadership (DECC Harbor Side Ballroom) Work with the personalities and gifts of each team member, harness their energy and unique skills. Guide your team through change where everyone stays on board and engaged. Stop managing people, start inspiring them...Be you...and help them Be Them.
----------------------------	--

10:00 am to 10:30 am	Morning Break
10:30 am to 12:00 pm	Navigating Minnesota’s First Livestreamed Trial and Supporting Employees Along the Way – Sarah Lindahl Pfeiffer, Sara Gonsalves, Stacy Carlson and Shannon Townsend (DECC Harbor Side Ballroom)
12:00 pm to 1:30 pm	Plated Lunch and MACM Awards (DECC)
Breakout Sessions 1:30 pm to 2:45 pm	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li data-bbox="407 338 1518 464"> ✚ Be Wildly Inclusive - Chris Heeter (DECC Room 301-302) Session Description: Learn how curiosity and humility pave the way to better understanding. Grow beyond the “Gold Rule to “Do unto others as they would like to be done unto”. Build a sense of belonging and connection for all employees and clients. <li data-bbox="407 495 1518 621"> ✚ Crash Reconstruction and Investigation – Sergeant Churness of the State Patrol (DECC Room 203) Session Description: Sgt. Churness will explain the crash reconstruction and investigation process with examples from past cases. <li data-bbox="407 653 1518 779"> ✚ Good Mental Health in the Workplace- Kay King NAMI (DECC Room 202) Session Description: Learn the five things you can do to create a workplace that values good mental health. Participants will learn how to promote good mental health, the common symptoms of mental illness, how attitudes and language impact people with mental illnesses, and the accommodations for mental illness. <li data-bbox="407 810 1518 915"> ✚ Dan Lew (Duluth Area Chief Public Defender) (DECC Room 205) Session Description: Innovation to reduce mass incarceration: warrant resolution programs, old warrants and partnerships led by judicial staff. <li data-bbox="407 947 1518 1062"> ✚ Maria’s Voice – Bill Pew & Lisa Weimelt (DECC Room 204) Session Description: Awareness + Small Acts = An opportunity to Make an Impact in a Family’s Experience Through Criminal and Civil Proceedings: Our family’s story after our daughter’s death from domestic violence.
2:45 pm to 3:15 pm	Afternoon Break
Breakout Sessions 3:15 pm to 4:30 pm	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li data-bbox="407 1136 1518 1262"> ✚ Be Wildly Inclusive - Chris Heeter (DECC Room 301-302) Session Description: Session Description: Learn how curiosity and humility pave the way to better understanding. Grow beyond the “Gold Rule to “Do unto others as they would like to be done unto”. Build a sense of belonging and connection for all employees and clients. <li data-bbox="407 1293 1518 1419"> ✚ Crash Reconstruction and Investigation – Sergeant Churness of the State Patrol (DECC Room 203) Session Description: Sgt. Churness will explain the crash reconstruction and investigation process with examples from past cases. <li data-bbox="407 1451 1518 1577"> ✚ Good Mental Health in the Workplace- Kay King NAMI (DECC Room 202) Session Description: Learn the five things you can do to create a workplace that values good mental health. Participants will learn how to promote good mental health, the common symptoms of mental illness, how attitudes and language impact people with mental illnesses, and the accommodations for mental illness. <li data-bbox="407 1608 1518 1713"> ✚ Dan Lew (Duluth Area Chief Public Defender) (DECC Room 205) Session Description: Innovation to reduce mass incarceration: warrant resolution programs, old warrants and partnerships led by judicial staff <li data-bbox="407 1745 1518 1850"> ✚ Maria’s Voice – Bill Pew & Lisa Weimelt (DECC Room 204) Session Description: Awareness + Small Acts = An opportunity to Make an Impact in a Family’s Experience Through Criminal and Civil Proceedings: Our family’s story after our daughter’s death from domestic violence

4:30 pm – 6:00 pm

Social Hour & Networking – DECC Harbor Side Ballroom

Thursday October 7, 2021

7:30 am to 8:30 am

Breakfast Buffet (DECC)

8:30 am to 9:30 am

MACM Business Meeting (DECC Harbor Side Ballroom)

9:30 am to 10:00 am

Morning Break and Hotel Check Out

10:00 am to 11:30 am

Richard Coffey (DECC Harbor Side Ballroom)
Seasons of Life with Change and Perseverance

11:30 am to 12:00 pm

Closing Remarks, Retiring of Colors and Adjournment (DECC Harbor Side Ballroom)
Jenny Miller, MACM President